Portland's Original Ale House

Hailed as the first place in Portland to pour a pint, $3 Deweys originated in the Old Port back in 1980 when it was started by Alan D. Eames the “Indiana Jones of Beer.”

Known as a pioneer of Maine's craft beer scene, it was the unique beers & the bar's friendly atmosphere that set Deweys apart from the rest. Armed with 38 tap lines and a rich history, the new $3 Deweys continues to stay true to its roots – “Serving the best beers from Maine and away”.
